Good morning and welcome to everyone who has joined us at St. Ninian's this morning. We hope you will enjoy our worship of God together today. As a congregation our mission is to 'Worship God together, encourage personal faith and prayer, spread the Good News about Jesus Christ, and love and care for others in our community.' If you are a visitor, there is a visitors' book at the front door, please sign it.

This is the season of Easter. Easter morning is only the first of 50 days of Eastertide that lead to Pentecost (this year on the 24th of May). Eastertide is a season of extended celebration exploring the ramifications of Jesus' resurrection for the redemption of all creation, and for joyful Christian living.

Before the service there is weekly a Prayer Group that meets in Room 6 (the Alpha Room) from 10:00am – 10:15am. Everyone is welcome, please ask a steward for Room 6, the Alpha Room.

There is no Sunday School or creche this morning, but children are very welcome in the service. During the service they are free to use the resources that will be provided. The reader this morning is Bob Brewster. The organist is Anne Kirkpatrick. The minister leading worship is the Rev. James Aitken.

Following worship there is fellowship, friendship, and refreshments in the Martin Shields' Hall. Please join us.

St. Ninian's uses the Revised Common Lectionary which is an approved week-by-week three-year cycle of biblical readings. In 2026 we are in Year A and the principal Gospel readings come from the Gospel of Matthew. The readings lead us from Advent through the Christian year, the Bible, and Jesus' life through birth, baptism, his public ministry, his death, resurrection and ascension.

ENTRANCE

The service begins with a sentence from the Bible (Psalm 105: 40), a call to stand (please do so if you are able to), an introit from the choir, and the entrance of the Bible. For the rest of the service the words in bold are read or sung by everyone. We sit to pray and stand to sing.

INTROIT

WELCOME, INTIMATIONS and SHARING OF THE PEACE
We welcome one another with Christ's words 'Peace be with you'.

APPROACH TO GOD

CALL TO WORSHIP (Psalm 118: 22 – 24)

Minister: Give thanks to the Lord for he is good;

All: his love endures forever.

Minister: The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

All: The Lord has done this. It is marvellous in our sight.

Minister: This is the day that the Lord has made.

All: We shall rejoice and be glad in it.

HYMN 424 Blest be the everlasting God

PRAYERS OF ADORATION, CONFESSION & LORD'S PRAYER

We continue our worship celebrating what God has given us while apologizing for what we have done to harm God, his creation, and his people.

Our Father, who art in heaven hallowed be thy name, Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen

Now the green blade riseth from the buried grain, love lives again, that with the dead has been:

Love is come again,
like wheat that springeth green.

RECESSIONAL

Go now in peace, never be afraid.
God will go with you each hour of every day.
Go now in faith, steadfast strong and true.
Know He will guide you in all you do.
Go now in love, and show you believe.
Reach out to others, so all the world can see.
God will be there, watching from above.
Go now in peace, in faith and in love.
