Good morning and welcome to everyone who has joined us at St. Ninian's this morning. We hope you will enjoy our worship of God together today. As a congregation our mission is to 'Worship God together, encourage personal faith and prayer, spread the Good News about Jesus Christ, and love and care for others in our community.' If you are a visitor, there is a visitors' book at the front door, please sign it.

Before the service there is weekly a Prayer Group that meets in Room 6 (the Alpha Room) from 10:00am – 10:15am. Everyone is welcome, please ask a steward for Room 6, the Alpha Room.

There is a crèche and a primary Sunday School this morning. The organist is Anne Kirkpatrick. The reader this morning is Donna Short. Leading worship is the Rev. James Aitken.

This Sunday is the fifth Sunday in the Season of Epiphany.

Epiphany comes from a Greek word meaning manifestation or appearance. On the Sundays between Christmas and Lent our Gospel readings focus on the emergence of Jesus Christ in the world through his ministry, mission, teaching and healing. During this season we grow more aware of the significance of Jesus' entire life aside from his birth, passion, death and resurrection that mark the significant seasons of the Christian year.

Following worship there is fellowship, friendship, and refreshments in the Martin Shields' Hall. Please join us.

St. Ninian's uses the Revised Common Lectionary which is an approved week-by-week three-year cycle of biblical readings. In 2026 we are in Year A and the principal Gospel readings come from the Gospel of Matthew. The readings lead us from Advent through the Christian year, the Bible, and Jesus' life through birth, baptism, his public ministry, his death, resurrection and ascension.

ENTRANCE

The service begins with a sentence from the Bible (John 8: 12), a call to stand (please do so if you are able to), an introit from the choir, and the entrance of the Bible. For the rest of the service the words in bold are read or sung by everyone. We sit to pray and stand to sing.
