Good morning and welcome to everyone who has joined us at St. Ninian's this morning. We hope you will enjoy our worship of God together today. As a congregation our mission is to 'Worship God together, encourage personal faith and prayer, spread the Good News about Jesus Christ, and love and care for others in our community.' If you are a visitor, there is a visitors' book at the front door, please sign it. After the service we have fellowship in the Martin Shields' Hall, please join us.

For young people, there is a crèche and Sunday School this morning. The reader this morning is Jim Hunter. The organist is Anne Kirkpatrick. Leading worship is the Rev. James Aitken.

Following worship there is fellowship, friendship, and refreshments in the Martin Shields' Hall. Please join us.

St. Ninian's uses the Revised Common Lectionary which is an approved week-by-week three-year cycle of biblical readings. In 2026 we are in Year A and the principal Gospel readings come from the Gospel of Matthew. The readings lead us from Advent through the Christian year, the Bible, and Jesus' life through birth, baptism, his public ministry, his death, resurrection and ascension.

ENTRANCE

The service begins with a sentence from the Bible (Psalm 69: 32, 33), a call to stand (please do so if you are able to), an introit from the choir, and the entrance of the Bible. For the rest of the service the words in bold are read or sung by everyone. We sit to pray and stand to sing.

Congregation: for we put our trust in you.

HYMN 465 Be thou my vision

PRAYERS OF ADORATION, CONFESSION & LORD'S PRAYER

We celebrate what God has given us, and confess how we have harmed God, God's creation, and each other.

Our Father, who art in heaven hallowed be thy name, Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen

RECESSIONAL

Go now in peace, never be afraid.
God will go with you each hour of every day.
Go now in faith, steadfast strong and true.
Know He will guide you in all you do.

Reach out to others, so all the world can see.
God will be there, watching from above.
